

Python Tutorial Links:

If you are planning to dig in, then either go to

<https://docs.python-guide.org/intro/learning/> or

<https://www.learnpython.org/>

for relatively more comprehensive tutorials.

If you are saying that you do not want to spend no more than 30 minutes for the tutorial thing, then pick

<https://www.programiz.com/python-programming/tutorial>

Finally, if you are referring this document when a few days left to the deadline of the homework, then you have no choice but digesting it within 10 minutes via:
